with Vanessa Lacey, Health & Education Manager, TENI
and Dr Karl Neff, Consultant Endocrinologist, National Gender Service

PRE-REGISTRATION ESSENTIAL - Closing date: Thursday 3rd December 2020

Vanessa Lacey has worked with TENI since 2010. In her current role as the Health and Education Manager she delivers training to health care professionals throughout Ireland and consults on a number of cases with health professionals.

Dr. Karl Neff is a consultant in Endocrinology and has worked in St Vincent's Hospital and Kings College Hospital in London. He is Clinical Director of the National Gender Service.

SESSION 1 4:30pm – 5:45pm for Health & Social Care Professionals

SESSION 2 6:30pm – 7:45pm for Trans* Community

Hosted by Listowel Family Resource Centre

Organised by Listowel FRC in partnership with TransKerry
and HSE Social Inclusion, Cork Kerry Community Healthcare

Session 1: 4:30pm-5:45pm

GPs, health/social care professionals, counsellors and teachers. This workshop is for those working in the area of sexual health and gender identity. Both Karl and Vanessa will give information on their services and answer questions from professionals working with Trans*/Trans* questioning clients in rural areas and explain referral pathways.

Facilitated by Rebecca Loughry, HSE Specialist Social Inclusion, Cork Kerry Community Health Care

Session 2: 6:30pm-7:45pm

This session is for the trans community, those questioning their gender identity, close family and friends. This session will give information on TENI and the National Gender Service roles, how to access these services, and the pathways for the Trans community in rural Ireland.

Facilitated by Albha Foley, Volunteer/Co-Facilitator, Trans Kerry Support Group
